Let's Get Started

Call today to set up your complimentary orientation with our founder, owner, and instructor Emilie Tobias who likes to personally welcome each student. On that first lesson, Emilie will show you how fun, interesting and achievable dancing can be! You will be introduced to some of the building blocks of partner dancing so you understand the process better and can then plan your next step more easily.

You have made a great choice and come to a fabulous place to learn to dance from the right professional for the job. Have fun and learn at The Ballroom Dance Center where all the teachers are both fun and certified!

dance SMART

- S – Superior reputation
- M – Masters of dance
- A – A passion for life-long learning
- R – Real people, real service
- T – Teachers who are fun and certified

Dance SMART at The Ballroom Dance Center where all of our teachers are fun, friendly and certified. We believe our students want to have fun, but we also know students really want to learn. All of our teachers are certified by a nationally recognized association because we are passionate about life-long learning and strive to continue to be masters of dance. Just like other professionals, our instructors pursue continuing education and bettering themselves on a regular basis. After all, would you go to a surgeon to do your hair or a landscaper to fix your computer? We know you want to pick the right professional for the job!

With a superior reputation as the most established ballroom dance studio in this area, we have had a stable and thriving business under the same ownership for 26 years. Our owner and founder, Emilie Tobias, is a former college administrator who opened The Ballroom Dance Center in 1992 with a vision of excellence in dance education. We value constant learning and we delight in creating a safe and hospitable learning environment.

Additionally, our administrative staff are real people who provide real service. We want each person who calls or comes through our door to feel welcome and informed as they receive superior service from approachable and helpful receptionists. Please let us know how we can support you in the best dance experience possible and don't hesitate to let us know if you ever have a concern.

Would you go to an accountant to mow your lawn?
Would you go to a baker to complete your tax forms?
Would you go to a policeman to get a pedicure?

Of course not! Why go anywhere else but The Ballroom Dance Center when you want to have fun and learn to dance from certified professionals?
