Let's Get Started

Call today to set up your complimentary orientation! During the orientation, Emilie Tobias, the founder and owner of The Ballroom Dance Center, will personally welcome you. Plan to have fun and learn about the building blocks of partner dancing. By better understanding the process, you and Emilie will be able to plan the next step in your dancing.

You have made the right decision! The Ballroom Dance Center is a wonderful place to learn to dance from professional teachers who are both fun and certified.

Would you go to an accountant to mow your lawn?
Would you go to a baker to complete your tax forms?
Would you go to a policeman to get a pedicure?

Of course not! Why go anywhere else but The Ballroom Dance Center when you want to have fun and learn to dance from certified professionals?
